

Happy Friday Everyone!

A few event details as we head into the weekend.

Fathers' Day

After our successful mothers' day event, we are inviting fathers to join us for an afternoon next Friday. This is an event for all male role models – we know that some grandads and uncles are very important too!

Wise Owls will be having Forest School in the afternoon, so dads can join them. Fledglings and Little Owls will be doing a construction challenge – calling all engineers! I'll keep the details a bit scarce for now, as it will add to the excitement. We hope that each adult can work with children to create a wonderful structure. If your children are in two different classes, you can try to visit both sessions!

We look forward to seeing you at school from 2.30pm.

Family Fun Day

Next Saturday, it's our annual festival event. The PTA have been incredibly busy getting things ready for a wonderful day. There will be stalls, games, live music and a delicious barbecue. Flyers are available if anyone can drop them off in the local area. Thank you so much to Chelsie and the amazing PTA!

Anstey Fair

On 5th July, we will be attending the Anstey Village Fair. The school and PTA will be hosting the fairground games area again. This event raises a lot of money for the school, and we are incredibly grateful to the village fair committee for supporting us. Please come along and enjoy what will no doubt be another wonderful event!

Lucas in Fledglings for trying his hardest every single day!

Ronan in Little Owls for his positive attitude and working hard on his routines and targets.

Kate in wise Owls for her great work in maths, discussing clocks and time.

Well done to all of you!
